

San Jacinto River Waste Pits Superfund Site Public Meeting

January 24, 2013

6:30 – 8:30 P.M.

Hosted by the Galveston Bay Foundation and Houston Advanced Research Center

J.D. Walker Community Center
7613 Wade Road
Baytown, TX 77521

Agenda

- 6:30      Welcome and Introductions
  - Scott Jones, Galveston Bay Foundation
- 6:35      San Jacinto River Waste Pits Background and the Superfund Process
  - Jennifer Ronk, Houston Advanced Research Center
- 6:45      Threats to Human Health from the Site: Pathways of Exposure
  - Birnur Guven, Houston Advanced Research Center
- 6:55      Review of the Clean Up Process at the Site Thus Far
  - Jennifer Ronk, Houston Advanced Research Center
- 7:15      The Superfund Process Going Forward and How You Can Be Involved
  - Scott Jones, Galveston Bay Foundation
- 7:20      Break
- 7:30      The Broader Picture: Dioxin in the Bay System and Tributaries
  - Linda Broach, Texas Commission on Environmental Quality
- 7:40      Seafood Consumption Advisories and Shellfish Harvest Areas
  - Michael Tennant, Texas Department of State Health Services
- 7:50      The Dioxin Total Maximum Daily Load Project to Reduce Pollution
  - Rachel Powers, Houston-Galveston Area Council
- 8:00      Question & Answer Session
- 8:30      Adjourn

Questions? Please contact Scott Jones:
sjones@galvbay.org